Day use fees are not charged for school groups (K through 12) provided reservations have been made. Careful advance planning, involving both teacher and park personnel, is vital for achievement of a maximum educational experience.

Reservations must be made 15 days in advance of the proposed date of your visit to allow preparation and scheduling by park personnel. The request shall be submitted in duplicate to the unit where the visit is proposed, and must be signed by the principal of the school which the students attend. If more than one school is sending students on a proposed tour, the principal from each school must submit a request. The Department reserves the right to combine tours when necessary. School groups shall be accompanied by enough school-appointed adult escorts or teachers to maintain order, and their escorts or teachers shall accompany the students while on the tour.

No day-use admission fees will be charged for school groups (K through 12), accompanying teachers, or adult leaders when reservations have been made.

Camping is not included under this program. Group camping information, including fee schedules, should be obtained from the park as far in advance as possible, as only limited facilities are available.
